

Carrie Best. – [after 1952] – [197?]. – 9 audio reels

Retrieval Code	Title	Date	Extent
2011-031 Ar 9855	Discussion with Carrie Best about her activism on the radio show AMChronicle / interviewed by unidentified Brian		1 audio reel (30 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9856	Lonesome Road Story	1970	1 audio reel (13 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9857	Interview with Carrie Best upon receiving the first National Black Coalition of Canada Award / interviewed by Peter Gzowski	[after 1969]	1 audio reel (15 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9858	The Quiet Corner with Carrie Best including organ music and readings / introduced and announcements by Harve McPherson (CFCY - Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island)	[between 1952 and 1964]	1 audio reel (11 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9859	The Quiet Corner: Spiritual readings and organ music, Shows entitled "The path that leads to nowhere" and "I Sea God" / narrated by Carrie Best and heard every Sunday on CKEC radio, New Glasgow	[between 1952 and 1964]	2 7/8" audio reels (5 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9860	Carrie Best speaking about her life and racism in Nova Scotia in a segment entitled I am Somebody on the CBC Radio Fredericton production of The Originals / hosted by Ross Ingram	24 November 1970	1 audio reel (28 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9861	A special anniversary broadcast of The Quiet Corner / prepared and narrated by Dr Carrie Best, OC - the theme of this broadcast being Calvary and Easter, three days apart with a formal ending	[197-?]	1 audio reel (30 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9862	The Quiet Hour, with a segment entitled "Portraits in Poetry" with the theme of broken things broadcast on CKCY radio in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island / narrated by Carrie Best	17 April [between 1952 and 1964?]	1 audio reel (10 mins)
2011-031 Ar 9863	Untitled item with a woman talking with others		1 audio reel (untimed)

Private Sector Archives
Revised 2016-08-17