

James William Carmichael. -- 1856-1934, predominant 1891-1924. -- 15.2 meters of textual records

The Carmichael papers in MG 2 consist of 161 volumes of business and political correspondence and records from 1868 to 1934. The political correspondence are letters to J.W. Carmichael; the business records are those of Carmichael and his family.

Volume 224 to 288 are records relating to the Carmichael family shipping business including Captains' letters dealing with the operations of their ships. 1891-1912.

Volumes 289 to 298 are letters of the Carmichael Company from firms and individuals in Nova Scotia. They are sorted alphabetically by name of sender but not chronologically. A list of the senders is in each volume. 1892-1925.

Volumes 299 to 318 are letters and telegrams addressed relating to both politics and business. 1873 – 1925

Volumes 319 to 323 are receipts and vouchers. 1898-1925.

Volumes 324 to 358 are letter books, mostly of a business nature. 1873-1934.

Volumes 359 to 386 are business records mostly ledgers. 1873-1921.

Accession 2011-020 transferred from the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic letters patent incorporate.
