12B.1, 2 & 3. Fiddle Tunes

Recorded by Helen Creighton

At Eastern Passage

1. Wilson's Clog. (This was Ben Henneberry's favorite dance)

2. Beaux of Oak Hill

3. Angus Campbell's Reel.

Fiddler; Ken Faulkner, Devil's Island lightkeeper; aged 36

The dance step is by Edmund Henneberry, and it is his voice that calls out as they used to do on Devil's Island. The words are, "Good boy fiddler", and "Sufferin' like a tole(thole) pin." They say a thole pin takes a lot of punishment when a boat is rowed against the wind, so the call seems to them quite logical.

Rich Counsellor. For text see Songs and Ballads From Nova Scotia,

On 13A the singer made a mistake, so vs. 3 is repeated.

On 13B2 I forgot to turn the machine from phono to record, so the last strip is a blank.
