The Bold Princess Royal

As in Songs and Ballads with the following changes;

On the 14th of February
We sailed from the land
In the bold Princess Royal
Bound for Newfoundland,
With forty brave seamen
For our ship's company
We were bound for the east
And the westward bound we.

2. Oh we had not been sailing
Both days or three
When a man from our masthead
A strange sail did see.
Came bearing down upon us
With a sail set so high,
And under her mizzen
False colours did fly.

~~Here comes a bold pirate
For to rob us I know.~~

3. "Oh God," cries our captain,
Oh what shall we do?
Here comes a bold pirate
For to rob us I know."
Up speaks our chief mate
And answered him so,
"We'll shake out our reefs
And away we will go."

4. With his loud speaking trumpet
He asked whence we came,
Our captain being master
Is answered him so,
"We're from it's New London
And we're bound to ~~Bardx~~ to St. John's."

5. "Oh back your maintopsail
And have your ship to,
I have plenty of letters
For to send them by you,
If I heave my maintopsail
And leave my ship to
It will be in some harbour
Not alongside of you."

(one verse omitted).

6. They chased us to windward
All that long long day,
They chased us to leeward
But ~~could not get~~
But would not gain way.

They fired shots at us
But they did prevail,
And the bold Princess Royal
Soon showed them her tail.

7. "Go down to your grog boys,
Yes, go down every one,
Go down to your grog boys
And be of good cheer,
For while there is sea room
There's nothing to fear."

Pass Around the Grog.

As found in Songs & Ballads From Nova Scotia with the following changes;

1. It's pass -----

When our money is all gone
We'll go to sea for more.

2. Oh here's to Queen Victoria
And long may she reign,

Oh here's to him-----

3. Then pass around the grog my boys
And never mind the scores,
when our money is all gone
We'll go to sea for more.

4. Oh here's to Queen Victoria.
