

Reel 180B

Except for the first song, this tape has no value. It was used to make singers comfortable when performing for NFB film "Songs of Nova Scotia." There are a verse or two of The Ghostly Sailors and Little Moose Hill by Isaac Doyle of West Jeddore with a bit of conversation showing the way we worked and the cooperation of the singers. Mr Doyle instead of saying he would sing it said "I can holler it to you." There are many repetitions to get the best results.

Hush, the Waves Are Rolling In, sung by Finvola Redden, Middle Musquodoboit; 2nd singing with piano accompaniment best. Pretty lullaby learned from her grandmother.

Hush, the waves are rolling in
White with foam, white with foam,
Father toils amid the storm
But baby sleeps at home.

2

Hush, the winds roar wild and deep,
How they moan, how they moan!
Brother feeds the wandering sheep
But baby sleeps at home.

3

Hush, the winds sweep p'er the knowes
Where they roam, where they roam,
Sister goes to seek the cows
But baby sleeps at home.

Sung by Finvola Redden, Middle Musquodoboit, and recorded by Helen Creighton in 1957.
