80B. Green Willow.

Recorded by Helen Creighton.

August 28, 1943.

At the singer's home, Chezzetcook, Nova Scotia.

English folk-song.

Singer; Dennis Smith, Chezzetcook; retired sea captain; aged 92.

Last Saturday night I was asked to a wedding,
The wedding of a female who proved unkind.

2. This is a story told by Mr. Smith about a friend of his, Garvie Young of Petperwick, a neighboring community. I will take the words from the duplicate.

Mount A re-recording tape No. 8. Well sung to good tune

Amusing story; No Bad Habits.

81A. Lovely Nancy.

Recorded by Helen Creighton.

August 28, 1943.

At Mr. Dennis Smith's house, Chezzetcook.

~~Ballad~~ English folk-song.

Singer; Walter Reast, Chezzetcook; aged about 45; farmer.

~~It is of a youth and a well bred youth
And he being a squire's only son.~~

As I rode out one fine summer evening
To view the stars and to take the air.

I believe this was on none of the broken records, and being such a lovely song I had Mr. Reast sing it again.

81B. The Bailiff's Daughter.

Recorded by Helen Creighton.

August 28, 1943.

At Mr. Dennis Smith's house, Chezzetcook, Nova Scotia.

Ballad.

Singer; Walter Roast, Chezzetcook; aged about 45; farmer.

It's of a youth and a well bred youth
And he being a squire's only son.

This I believe was also on a broken record, so I asked Mr. Roast to repeat it.

Mount A re-recording tape No. 14. Sung softly and well. Better Than 16A which is Mount A tape 11

82A.

Recorded by Helen Creighton.

August 29, 1943.

At the singer's home, South-East Passage, Nova Scotia.

Stories of Hicks the Pirate and others.

Informant; Enos Hartlan, South-East Passage; aged 81; labourer.

These are traditional stories which I have heard him tell many times. Although I have taken his words down, he often varies the telling, so it would be better for me to get the words from the duplicate.

Folklore of Lunenburg County p. 13
