JANUARY 28, 1981

EX 165:106

COLES, GORDON. Letter from Coles to Feagan re crown counsel, saying it is not the policy of the A.G. Dept. to require the police to consult with prosecutors, rather the police are encouraged to seek advice from prosecutors; at times the police will be directed to deal with someone in the Dept. other than a prosecutor; the policy in the A.G. Dept. is that in a difference of opinion with the police, the person with prosecutorial responsibility decides whether to lay charges and pursue a case.

SIMMONDS, R.H. Letter from Commissioner Simmonds to Harry How acknowledging the A.G. Dept.'s role to give advice during an investigation, but that the police have the right to lay charges independent of that advice. With the Thornhill investigation, the RCMP independently decided not to lay charges, and if the decision had been otherwise the RCMP would have gone ahead regardless of the A.G. Dept.'s wishes.

1. How, Harry

FEBRUARY 26, 1981

EX 165:111

VENNER, T.S. Draft memo from Venner to Feagan re crown counsel, saying Coles' policy infringes on the police role, that it is the role of the police to swear an information regardless to the A.G. Dept.'s opinion; a policy is being developed by the RCMP to deal with this. Comments of various RCMP officials included; Sgt. Dillabaugh suggests the memo be made stronger and say that in future the police will lay charges even if the A.G. Dept. disagrees.

Met with Sarty and officials from the Auditor General's Office to discuss irregularities in MLS's expenses; Sarty wanted advice on how to proceed. After preliminary review the RCMP suggested they and Sarty meet with A.G. Dept. Sarty met with the Speaker to tell him of the intention to meet with the A.G. Dept.; the Speaker felt the Premier should be informed. Met with staff from Auditor General's Office and A.G. Dept., Coles wanted to review the material and would get back to the RCMP. Paul Cormier later told RCMP he thought Coles did not want a criminal investigation and although Gale was not opposed to a police investigation, Cormier thought Gale would go along with Coles. Investigation remained pending, and the file was closed in October 1984.
