CONTINUATION REPORT

RCMP2 59

SUBJECT

CASE No.

COFY

Sydney, Nove Scotia 8 June 1971

Statement of Marvel Dwight Mattson, 103 Byng Ave. Swiney. N.S.

I reside at 103 Byng Ave., Sydney, Nova Scotia

About ten minutes before midnight of May 28, 1971. I went upstairs to go to bed. The bedroom is on the Wentworth Park side of the house. I was in the bedroom a matter of a few minutes when I heard talking coming from the street; the window was open. I paid little attention until I heard someone say, "there's someone bleeding in the park". I went to the window, but couldn't see anyone. They were below the verandah and also I had turned off the outside light before going upstairs.

I immediately called the City of Sydney City Police from the upstairs telephone to report what I had heard. I continued to watch from the window in the upstairs hall next to the telephone. There was more conversation, but I couldn't make it out. Then a car came along and a man stopped it in the middle of the street. He had walked out from the sidewalk in front of my house. He showed the driver his arm and it was again said, "there's someone bleeding in the park" and with that he got in the car and it drove off towards George St. I kept an eye on it and believe it went down George towards Argyle. I again called the police to report further on what I had seen.

In a matter of a minute or so of the first telephone call I saw a car with flashing lights on Cresent St. and very shortly afterwards another vehicle showed up which I took to be an ambulance.
