Chief Justice T. Alex Hickman.
 Chief Commissioner on the Donald Marshall inquiry
 Halifax N.S.

Dear Sir:-

During the latter part of the 1970^s, an investigation was conducted by the R.C.M.P. in the town of Berwick N.S. on drug trafficking and related offences.

Sgt Mike Ennis of the R.C.M.P. Conducted the investigation, he was stationed in New Minas detachment at the time. He is now ^{with} ~~at~~ the detachment in Kingstar N.S.

It is understood that Mr Donald Hall of Berwick was to be charged. All of a sudden the investigation was stopped. Mr Hall is now a County Court judge.

One might expect that there is a file in the Attorney General's Dept. Perhaps Mike Ennis might say why the investigation was stopped,

Sir, would it be within your jurisdiction to look into this matter?

Yours sincerely,
 Gordon R Carter
