MARITIME CENTRE, SUITE 1026, 1505 BARRINGTON STREET, HALIFAX
NOVA SCOTIA, B3J 3K5 902-424-4800

CHIEF JUSTICE T. ALEXANDER HICKMAN
CHAIRMAN

ASSOCIATE CHIEF JUSTICE LAWRENCE A. POITRAS
COMMISSIONER

THE HONOURABLE
MR. JUSTICE GREGORY THOMAS EVANS
COMMISSIONER

March 30, 1988

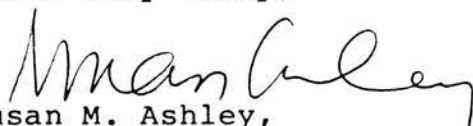

Mr. Joseph G. Mullins
75 Gray Street
Sydney, Nova Scotia

Dear Mr. Mullins:

I would like to advise you that Mr. Clayton Ruby has directed to us the documentation that was recently delivered to him at the Lord Nelson Hotel. As you know, this Royal Commission is looking into various aspects of the criminal justice system in Nova Scotia, including such matters as the responsibility of laying criminal charges, police investigations, and the responsibilities of prosecutors and defence lawyers. I hope that the recommendations which we make will be of interest to you.

Thank you for your interest in the work of the Royal Commission.

Yours very truly,

Susan M. Ashley,
Commission Executive
Secretary

Dear Sir:

I would like to press the following charges against Manager Jim Wirun and employee Marty Kolanka regarding an incident at the Holiday Inn Health Club on Wednesday February 24th.

1. Pursuit and harassment
2. Entrapment
3. Conspiracy to lay false and malicious prosecution charges

This is an obvious cover up for Keddy's Health Club where the same harassment occurred several months ago. A plan by Almond MacDonald to drop a barbell on my broken neck never materialized.

The problem seems to evolve around a broken neck I received almost four years ago in Cheticamp and had false and malicious prosecution charges laid against me.

I was found not guilty at the time.

A lie detector test will provide the above.

Sincerely,

Unless refuse to lay charges. Lawyer's refuse Joseph C. Mullins to handle case
