Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for your letter of November 10th, 1987.

I enclose a copy of the Terms of Reference of the Royal Commission on the Donald Marshall, Jr., Prosecution, as well as a list of witnesses that have been heard in Sydney. Unfortunately, the witness list for the Halifax phase of the Hearings is not yet ready for distribution, nor have we set tentative dates for the appearance of particular witnesses. It is not likely that this list will be available much before the initiation of the Halifax Hearings in January. However, it is likely that the current Deputy Attorney General, Mr. Gordon Coles, will be called as a witness, but I cannot advise you at this time of any further details regarding any of the witnesses.

Thank you for your interest in the Royal Commission.

Very truly yours,

Susan M. Ashley,
Commission Executive
Secretary

Attention: Commission Executive Secretary

I would very much appreciate it if you could forward to me at your earliest opportunity a copy of the terms of reference of the above-named commission of inquiry, as well as a list of the witnesses scheduled to be called and the tentative dates of their appearance, if such is available.

In particular, could you advise whether the current Deputy Attorney General will be called, and provide the date(s) and time set aside for his testimony?

Yours truly,

A. E. Smith
